

WOODLANDS NEWS

Christmas performances

I am sure you are as proud as we are of your child's performances this year. Well done to everyone involved.

At present your donations to support our music curriculum have amounted to over £460.00

Your support, generosity, positive feedback and emails have been very much appreciated by the Woodlands team.

We wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New year.

Festival of Carols – Great Yarmouth Hippodrome

Well done to our school choir and musicians who played in the orchestra at this event. We were very proud that the children sang two songs written by Mr Ainslie.

Creative Education Trust Carol Service at The Minster

On Monday evening the Trust schools joined together to take part in a festive carol service. Janni and Gracie H led the procession as candle holders and Evan read a bible passage to the huge congregation. As always our school choir sang beautifully.

Woodlands Talent Show

We look forward to watching children perform in this annual event. This will be followed by a staff performance of 'Winter Wonderland'

Thank you for all your generous donations towards helping the homeless. Your contributions will be shared with our local community on Christmas Day.

Well done to our reception children who made individual Christmas cards for residents at St Edmund residential home. They were so delighted by our children's kindness they made special cards for our children which were shared with them this week.

Congratulations to Mr Holmes who got married on Saturday 16th December. We wish them every future happiness.

This Friday we said Goodbye to Mr Hambright. I am sure you will join us in wishing him every future success in his new school.

In the past few weeks Mrs Handford has joined our team in her role as Finance Manager.

In January Mrs Cowan will re-join us as a year 3 teacher. She will then job share with Mrs Gates when she returns from maternity leave at the end of February.

We will also welcome Miss Mace who has been appointed as specialist SEN and behavior management teaching assistant.

Attendance

This term our attendance is 95.2 %.

Our target is 96%

Well done to 1B and 3A who achieved the highest and the target of 96% attendance this term.

Well done to all children who achieved 100% attendance this term.

Dates for your diary

Please note that our calendar dates include parent forum sessions and information sessions aimed at supporting your child's home learning. We have also planned additional year 6 revision sessions during the Easter holiday.

I will also confirm at the start of next term which end of term dates will have an optional 1pm collection time.
